

Alderley Edge Golf Club

Health and Safety Policy Statement

It is the Policy of Alderley Edge Golf Club to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable the health, safety and welfare of all the Club members, employees and all persons likely to be affected by Club operations. As an employer the Club Committee recognises its responsibility to comply with the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 and all other legislation applicable to the organisation and will achieve this by:

- Establishing and maintaining suitable health and safety management arrangements in the form of this policy, the Club Health and Safety manual and associated procedures and documentation.
- Establishing Club rules to ensure all members conduct themselves in a safe manner when using Club facilities.
- Ensuring all employees are competent and adequately trained to carry out their tasks.
- Providing and ensuring maintenance of safe plant and equipment in compliance with health and safety legislation and ensuring adequate control measures are in place.
- Consulting with all persons on matters affecting health and safety.

Accordingly Club employees are expected to:

- Take reasonable care of their own and other people's welfare including visitors and contractors.
- Carry out all duties in a safe and timely manner including all housekeeping and maintenance in such a way as to keep the clubhouse, golf course and all other areas safe for those using them.
- Ensure safe handling and use of substances provided by the Club for their work activities.
- Obey all management instructions with regard to health and safety issues.

All club members are expected to play their part by:

- Obeying all club rules when using the golf course and club facilities and in accordance with any posted signage or written instruction.
- Reporting any situation which may pose a threat to the well being of any other person.

All at Alderley Edge Golf Club, including members must recognise and accept their duty to protect the health and safety of all those using club facilities, working at the club and those who may be affected by their actions.

Name:

Robert Booth

Signed

Dated: 12th May 2016

(On Behalf of the AEGC Club Council)